

Fodor'sTravel

March 20, 2017

9 World-Class Spas in Surprising Places

Watergate Hotel

WATERGATE HOTEL

Where: Washington, D.C.

You already know The Watergate Hotel from historical events, but the recent $200 million refresh (the Foggy Bottom hotel reopened last summer) pumps new life into the property. At the $3.5 million, 10,500-square-foot Argentta Spa, this five-star vibe translates to glam treatments, incorporating Cabernet Sauvignon grape seeds (for the Cabernet Contour body scrub) and a salt scrub enhanced with Icelandic moonflower aromas. Also in the facilities, which boast a sleek interior of gray hues, is a pool with three lap lanes and a calendar of yoga classes.

Plan Your Trip: Visit Fodor's Guide to Washington D.C.